

PIBC Vancouver Island South Chapter and the University of Victoria Present:

Celebrating Planning at UVic: From Learning to Professional Practice

We are pleased to partner with the University of Victoria to host a walking tour, presentation and networking event celebrating planning education at UVic and the exciting opportunities it creates for future planners across Victoria, Vancouver Island and beyond.

The event will include:

- Guided walking tour of UVic to learn about recent developments including new buildings and infrastructure improvements.
- Presentations from Continuing Studies and the Department of Geography on planning education and professional pathways available at UVic (introducing the new Masters of Planning program).
- Networking opportunities with students, faculty members, researchers and planning professionals.
